

COMP 125 - Visual Information Processing

- Dr Nick Hayward
- Spring 2018

Final Course Assessment - Student Declaration

The following outline is a declaration of academic honesty for final project deliverables towards the COMP 125 course.

You are expected to be familiar with Loyola's policy on academic integrity.

- Academic Integrity - https://www.luc.edu/academics/catalog/undergrad/reg_academicintegrity.shtml

Any violation of the policies described at the above URL may result in a combination of the following actions:

- Substantial penalty or zero on the assignment
- Failing grade in the course
- Notification of CS department
- Notification of Dean's office

Signature of agreement

By signing this document, you agree that you have acted ethically while preparing your final report and project material. This includes all developed and submitted project application code, and written material towards the final report.

You also agree to be bound by the applicable university academic integrity policies and procedures, as noted above.

Student Name and Signature

Please add your full name and student ID, as it appears in LOCUS, and then date and sign this declaration.

Submit a signed copy of this document along with your final project material to

- nhayward@luc.edu

Full Name (as registered in LOCUS):

Student ID (as registered in LOCUS):

Date (e.g. 22nd April 2018):

Signature: